MIRACLE FLAIR... 'ANGELS CAST SHADOWS'

(Massacre Records) Reviewed 31st August 2016

After a long journey, Swiss rockers MIRACLE FLAIR has finally reached a point, where their hard work will pay off. 'Angels Cast Shadows', the band's second album is a piece of art, which showcases the band's passion and attention to detail. It's an international affair, and the album's been refined by the production skills of the living legend Tommy Vetterli (Coroner). Miracle Flair centres around the two creative forces Nicole Hartmann and Daniel Maurizi, who produce beautiful melodies entangled with crisp guitar riffs. This long player is peppered throughout with Melodic/ Epic/ Symphonic metal that will sure please fans of the genre, and there are some corking tracks here as well. All I can say is check this record out when it is released 21st October - recommended... 8.75/10 (Dave)
